Clifton Park-Halfmoon Public Library to host A Community Conversation

The Clifton Park-Halfmoon Public Library will host a public forum, "A Community Conversation," led by a panel of local community leaders who will present cultural changes in the community, discuss the impact on schools, businesses and families and invite public discussion. The program will take place on Sunday, February 12 at 2pm at the Clifton Park-Halfmoon Public Library located at 475 Moe Road, Clifton Park, NY.

The panelists will include Dr. Oliver Robinson, Superintendent of the Shenendehowa Central School District; Mr. Pete Bardunias, President of the Chamber of Southern Saratoga County; Dr. Phillip Naftaly, Distinguished Professor of Sociology & Anthropology, SUNY Adirondack Community College.

Registration is requested. Register online at www.cphlibrary.org through the Calendar of Events or call the library at 371-8622.
