The Friends of the Clifton Park-Halfmoon Public Library will host a reception beginning at 7pm the evening of the Vote, Sept. 16 in the Josephine Piracci Board Room of the Library. This event will recognize the Friends of the Library Volunteer of the Year. In addition, the Friends will have the unveiling of local artist, Marcie Slot's Architectural rendering project....a full color, framed depiction of each of our former library buildings and our beautiful "new" Library. The four full-color, framed renderings will enhance our boardroom and chronicle the history of our Library. The public is invited to come, vote and enjoy some delicious refreshments.
